Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

STATINTL

I am pleased to express my appreciation on behalf of the U. S. Army Intelligence School for another fine presentation by [REDACTED] at Fort Holabird, on 27 February 1963, to our Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] discussion of economic intelligence data demonstrated to the class the intricate relationship of economic considerations to the study of strategic intelligence. The students were particularly interested in the speaker's analysis of "hot" and "cold" war aspects of economic intelligence. [REDACTED] effective manner of presentation enabled the students to clearly understand this most complex and difficult subject.

STATINTL

Thank you for your continued cooperation in our guest speaker program. Would you please convey to [REDACTED] the sincere appreciation of the Staff and Faculty.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

Laurence C. Brown
